

Alex Dupas

With a career spanning almost 20 years, Alex Dupas - Brazilian harmonica player, composer, songwriter and singer has a strong inspiration and influence of Robert Johnson, Muddy Waters, Little Walter, Sonny Boy Williamson II. Develops his work in the Blues, flirting with the Jazz, Funky, Rhumba, Rock and Country.

Along his musical career was part of several groups, among them are: Jazz Q.é Blues Band (1997), where he was founder, Souza The Souza Lima Harmonica Orchestra from Conservatory Souza Lima - SP (2001), regency of Ulysses Cazallas; Jafer Blue (2001). Currently, he joined the Black Garoa Blues Band and follows his solo career where he does solo performances (with playback), or double, or band, depending on the purpose of the event.

Alex Dupas has shared onstage with leading artists of the blues scene, such as Ruth London, Bee Scott, J. J.

Jackson, Ricardo Corte Real, Flávio Guimarães Thiago Cerveira, Robson, Big Chico, Jefferson Gonçalves, Peter Mad Cat, Steve Guyger, Ivan Márcio, and others.

He has performed at many pubs and concert halls of São Paulo Brazil (Bourbon Street Music Club, Tonton Jazz Music Bar, Jazz Club Syndikat, Madeleine Jazz Bar, Paribar, Cafe Noir, Piano's Bar Clube Pinheiros) and interior of the state ("Santa Garrafa" - Araras - SP, "Pinga com Torresmo" - Varginha - MG), he participated in important events such as "Ibitiblues" (Ibitipoca - MG - 2004/2005), Blues Club (Cultural Center of Araras - SP - 2011), Christmas in Square (Araras - SP - 2011), Project Meetings called "Projeto Encontros" - Metro Paraíso - SP - 2011/2012, 11th International Conference on Harmonica (SESC Pompéia - São Paulo - Brazil - 2011). He participated in the TV show "Rock On the Road" (<http://youtu.be/iXmU6xX8Fg0>) broadcast by JustTV (www.justtv.com.br) and radio program "Earthquake Blues" broadcast by Stay Rock Brazil (www.stayrockbrazil.com.br).

2011 to 2013 he toured with the show "A Trip to History of the Blues' Alex Dupas was a musical journey that stretched from Mississippi to Chicago, passing through New Orleans and California. Throughout this trip, he had some history of the blues - its origins, fun facts, trivia, striking characters and their tales - creating an engaging and exciting atmosphere for all who would embark on this journey.

Also in 2011 released the CD "Alex Dupas Collection", which shows a summary of 10 years of his career and can be enjoyed on site www.myspace.com/alexdupas.

Alex Dupas released his first solo CD, "Salaried" with own compositions songs, which explores the blues sung in Portuguese.

There are also some samples of the show Alex Dupas on youtube, follow the links below:

Same Boogie - http://youtu.be/rhYRHnt_Kps

Cross Road Blues - <http://youtu.be/A35e2oggaMY>

Sonny Boy Lives - <http://youtu.be/H0bvNs7RfeY>

Checking Up On My Baby - <http://youtu.be/bAvBKBsuh9A>

Participation with Flávio Guimarães - <http://youtu.be/jo8gGELhiCo>

Alex Dupas
+55 11 99261.9061
www.alexdupas.com.br
alexdupas@uol.com.br